

Sharing Progress
in Cancer Care

SPCC Educational Project on
Interstitial Lung Disease (ILD) as a
Cancer Treatment Induced
Adverse Event

Sharing Progress in Cancer Care

WEBINAR 1

Title: “Diagnosis of drug induced interstitial lung disease (ILD) in cancer patients: tips for practice”

Date: Monday 17 October 2022 at 18:00 CEST

Programme

18:00-18:03	Introduction
18:03-18:16	Practical approach to diagnose interstitial lung disease (ILD): tips from the pneumologist to the oncologist - Elisabeth Bendstrup, DK
18:16-18:29	Practical approach to diagnose ILD: tips from the radiologist to the oncologist – Cornelia Schaefer Prokop, NL
18:29-18:42	What is the frequency of drug-induced ILD and when to suspect it – Alfredo Addeo, CH
18:42-18:55	Discussion focused on daily practice and Q&A - Chairs and Experts
18:55-19:00	Take Home Messages and Closure

Faculty

Discussant: Hope Rugo, Director of Breast Oncology and Clinical Trials Education, University of California San Francisco, US

Discussant / Expert: Alfredo Addeo, Senior Oncologist, Geneva University Hospital, CH

Expert: Elisabeth Bendstrup, Department of Respiratory Diseases and Allergy, Aarhus University Hospital, DK

Expert: Cornelia Schaefer Prokop, Radiologist at Meander Medical Centre, Amersfoort, NL